

TION SALES
POMEROY & CO.
ONE HOUSE,
Dining-Rooms and Despaines-st., ing, April 8, at 10 o'clock,
contents of all rooms,
TITION!
Linen, Carpets, and Glass.
Dining-Rooms and Office
Linen, Carpets, and Glass.

N. POMEROY & CO.,
Auctioneers.

ES AND LIQUORS
AUCTION.

April 8, at 10 o'clock, We will sell the Stock of LIQUORS belonging to the ex-owners, and imported especially SHOWS, and the choicest other Liquors are all of the finest selected to satisfy CHICAGO, will be offered Private Sale, will be by parties who wish a FORM AL-

POMEROY & CO., Auctioneers.

cial Sale

om and Kitchen Furniture and Stores of

Restaurant,

at 2 O'CLOCK,

old will positively be sold.

chased must call this morning for
ELISON, POMEROY & CO.,
Auctioneers.

MORTGAGE SALE

ture of the

METROPOLITAN HOTEL,

April 8, at 9-10 o'clock,

the Furniture of the above Hotel, and all fixtures, furniture, and chairs, tables, and W. T. Dressing Be-

and W. T. Wash Commo-

Mirrors, Electric Chairs, French Lounges, Camp Chairs,

now and in perfect order. Par-and stand the sale.

order of the Mortgagors. Term-and bid exhibition on Wednes-

POMEROY & CO., Auctioneers.

FRIDAY'S SALE,

April 10, at 9-10 o'clock,

the Stock of

SECOND-HAND

NITURE,

Parlor Suite, Bureau,

Beds, Chairs, Gliders,

Linen, Wine, and a large stock of

ELISON, POMEROY & CO.,

Auctioneers.

UPT STOCK OF

LIQUORS, & CIGARS

AUCTION.

at 10 o'clock, 100 bottles Chivas,

Johnnie Walker, Old Scotch,

Old Scotch, Blended Scotch,

Scotch, &c.,

P. GORE & CO.,

Wabash-av.

HEIR GREAT

Shoe Sale

AUCTION.

Wednesday, April 8, at 10 a.m., made goods in Men's and women's, together with other

GEO. P. GORE & CO.,

Wabash-av.

UCTION,

April 8, at 9-10 o'clock,

and our sale and our large

leather Goods,

Wardrobes,

Tables,

Washstand, Bureaus,

Armchairs, Spring Beds,

Mirrors, &c., &c.,

Decks, Carpets, Plates

attended to at Private Residence

Guitars and Harmonicas.

P. GORE & CO., Auctioneers.

5. Piece Goods, Dress Goods,

White Goods, Underwear,

Cape, Etc.

UCTION,

10 a.m., at 9-10 a.m.,

our Carpets, Stair and Cotton, Etc.

10 a.m., at 10 Madison-av.

stons, and Harness.

W. H. COOK, 10 Madison-av.

10 a.m., at 10 Madison-av.

ABLE STOCK OF

HATS, SHOES, &c.,

10 a.m., at 10 Madison-av.

WITTER'S SALE,

DAMAGED BY WATER,

at 9-10 o'clock, at BUTTER'S Anton.

HALL SELL

EFFECTS

OF

17 South Sangamon-st.

on the premises, con-

Dining-Rooms, Bed-

Rooms, Wash-

Rooms, Living-Rooms,

Chimney, Recessed Ceilings,

Walls, &c., &c.,

W. A. BUTTER'S, Auctioneers.

10 a.m., at 10 o'clock,

AUCTION SALE OF

goods, Clothing,

Fancy Goods, Etc.

10 a.m., at 10 o'clock,

POLITICAL.

Additional Returns from the Town Elections of Tuesday.

Candidates Elected in the Several Towns of Cook County.

Municipal Elections in Other Western States.

Signs of a Break in the Massachusetts Senatorial Fight.

COOK COUNTY.

CHICAGO. Owing to the slowness of the judges official returns of town elections could be given yesterday for South Chicago only. The result on

THE NORTH SIDE was given, but the official returns are now published, as follows:

	North Side	South Side	West Side	North Side
Assessor—	450,400	500,511	382,500	500,400
Albert Parker	200,200	200,000	150,000	200,000
Collector—Duffy	200,200	200,100	150,000	200,000
George Kamm	300,000	300,000	200,000	300,000
John Maynard	300,000	300,000	200,000	300,000
Robertson—	450,400	500,511	382,500	500,400
John McFayre	200,200	200,100	150,000	200,000
August Arnold	200,200	200,100	150,000	200,000
Town Clerk—	470,423	504,514	370,575	500,400
Henry Callahan	320,111	300,000	200,000	300,000
Fred Oest	200,200	200,100	150,000	200,000
Patrick Daly	200,200	200,100	150,000	200,000
James Jones	310,200	300,000	200,000	300,000
Charles Hough	200,200	200,100	150,000	200,000
John Norbeck	200,200	200,100	150,000	200,000

THE WEST SIDE. The owing here was intolerable slow, partly owing, however, to the number of split votes.

The returns from the Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Twelfth, Thirteenth, and Fourteenth Wards were as follows: Assessor: Rafferty, 1,920; Mahring, 1,157; For Collector: O'Brien, 1,571; Hickey, 1,156; For Supervisor: Kinnane, 1,040; Baker, 1,116. The returns indicate the size of Lafferty and Baker, and it is not unlikely that the Ninth Ward will elect O'Brien.

SUBURBAN. In the Town of Barrington the following were elected:

Supervisor—S. W. Kingsley.	1
Town Clerk—J. S. Scott.	1
Collector—J. J. Kinney.	1
Assessor—J. S. Collins.	1
Justice of the Peace—D. R. Richardson.	1
Constable—G. H. Henderson and Charles Kellogg.	1

CHEBOKEE. The election for officers of the Town of Chebokee in the choice of the following:

Supervisor—C. E. Crafts.	1
Assessor—H. H. Herrick.	1
Collector—Joseph Donahue.	1
Town Clerk—J. C. Sharp.	1
Trustee—one year—A. O. Butler.	1
Town Clerk—Ed S. Osgood.	1
Collector—W. H. Wilcox.	1
Constable—John W. Lambeth.	1

EVANSTON. The town election passed off quietly, although it was much more interesting than the two nights of Miss Rogers' as it gave the rather favorable opportunity to show themselves in what they were more familiar.

"Leah" was played with an absence of intelligence as the boards, and that it was the players was made apparent.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The Association was the most prominent and the star attraction of the two nights of "Leah."

It is not to be blamed as the players were

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact is not to be

blamed as the play was

not well received.

The fact

MONEY AND COMMERCE.

MONETARY.

Wednesday Evening, April 8.
The currency inflation bill is still the subject of earnest discussion among bankers, capitalists, and business men generally. It is difficult to agree among themselves as to the effect the bill, as passed by the Senate, is likely to have upon the country. As to the greenbacks, all are agreed that it adds the $44,000,000 heretofore referred to, to the amount in circulation. Many believe that if the law is passed by the House exactly as it came from the Senate, and then strictly enforced, its effect is likely to contract rather than expand the National Bank currency. No one, it is contended, can afford to take out the additional $46,000,000. Some bankers contend that they can better afford to retire the currency than now out than to keep it in circulation. All these matters of opinion will be settled by the actual facts in a few weeks or months at most after the act is passed. It is scarcely credible, however, that the inflationists, who have the majority in Congress, should pass a law that would be a poor compliment to the older statesmen—a quality, however, of which no one has ever accused them of possessing any considerable amount.

Bankers report a steady demand for currency by country correspondents. The fact shows a revival of the spring business, soon to be made evident in the form of fresh products. The roads must soon become thoroughly settled, when the railways will doubtless have all they can do. The fair prices now ruling for grain, provisions, etc., will bring them forward as fast as possible. The former will have had a stimulating effect upon the business of the city. More activity is noticeable in the streets and in most if not all departments of trade.

A majority of the banks report a fair demand for money—in fact all they care to supply, while a few are troubled with a surplus. They will want a large amount of paper at 6 per cent, to meet their obligations. The former will be able to do so, and the latter will be able to do so, but the market may be quoted a shade easier. There is not much activity among agents of Eastern capitalists and note-brokers. Quotations as heretofore, 8@10 per cent, per annum. Banks are still in a position to loan money, all the money owners are entitled to at 8@2, and in large loans at the lower figure.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.
Editor of "The Chicago Tribune":
May 10, 1873.—We thank you for your article in The Tribune of this morning on the effects of inflation.

You say that Prof. Fiske, your correspondent, has made a good deal of noise about the effects of inflation, and that you agree with him. But I do not. I do not believe that he is correct, and also assuming that $80,000,000 is beyond the demands of business, it is worth no more than $60,000,000, therefore the greenbacks are proportionately added to it. I submit, therefore, whether this is not equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent in the value of the dollar.

To me a common phrase there is about "an even thing" on which a harridan happens to want some, and goes out to buy, he has to pay 25 cents for $1,000 premium. If he goes home with $1,000, he has paid 25 cents extra, but the market may be quoted a shade easier.

There is not much activity among agents of

Eastern capitalists and note-brokers. Quotations as heretofore, 8@10 per cent, per annum.

Banks are still in a position to loan money, all the money owners are entitled to at 8@2, and in large loans at the lower figure.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Editor of "The Chicago Tribune":
May 10, 1873.—We thank you for your article in The Tribune of this morning on the effects of inflation.

You say that Prof. Fiske, your correspondent, has made a good deal of noise about the effects of inflation, and that you agree with him.

But I do not. I do not believe that he is correct, and also assuming that $80,000,000 is beyond the demands of business, it is worth no more than $60,000,000, therefore the greenbacks are proportionately added to it. I submit, therefore, whether this is not equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent in the value of the dollar.

To me a common phrase there is about "an even thing" on which a harridan happens to want some, and goes out to buy, he has to pay 25 cents for $1,000 premium. If he goes home with $1,000, he has paid 25 cents extra, but the market may be quoted a shade easier.

There is not much activity among agents of

Eastern capitalists and note-brokers. Quotations as heretofore, 8@10 per cent, per annum.

Banks are still in a position to loan money, all the money owners are entitled to at 8@2, and in large loans at the lower figure.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Editor of "The Chicago Tribune":
May 10, 1873.—We thank you for your article in The Tribune of this morning on the effects of inflation.

You say that Prof. Fiske, your correspondent, has made a good deal of noise about the effects of inflation, and that you agree with him.

But I do not. I do not believe that he is correct, and also assuming that $80,000,000 is beyond the demands of business, it is worth no more than $60,000,000, therefore the greenbacks are proportionately added to it. I submit, therefore, whether this is not equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent in the value of the dollar.

To me a common phrase there is about "an even thing" on which a harridan happens to want some, and goes out to buy, he has to pay 25 cents for $1,000 premium. If he goes home with $1,000, he has paid 25 cents extra, but the market may be quoted a shade easier.

There is not much activity among agents of

Eastern capitalists and note-brokers. Quotations as heretofore, 8@10 per cent, per annum.

Banks are still in a position to loan money, all the money owners are entitled to at 8@2, and in large loans at the lower figure.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Editor of "The Chicago Tribune":
May 10, 1873.—We thank you for your article in The Tribune of this morning on the effects of inflation.

You say that Prof. Fiske, your correspondent, has made a good deal of noise about the effects of inflation, and that you agree with him.

But I do not. I do not believe that he is correct, and also assuming that $80,000,000 is beyond the demands of business, it is worth no more than $60,000,000, therefore the greenbacks are proportionately added to it. I submit, therefore, whether this is not equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent in the value of the dollar.

To me a common phrase there is about "an even thing" on which a harridan happens to want some, and goes out to buy, he has to pay 25 cents for $1,000 premium. If he goes home with $1,000, he has paid 25 cents extra, but the market may be quoted a shade easier.

There is not much activity among agents of

Eastern capitalists and note-brokers. Quotations as heretofore, 8@10 per cent, per annum.

Banks are still in a position to loan money, all the money owners are entitled to at 8@2, and in large loans at the lower figure.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Editor of "The Chicago Tribune":
May 10, 1873.—We thank you for your article in The Tribune of this morning on the effects of inflation.

You say that Prof. Fiske, your correspondent, has made a good deal of noise about the effects of inflation, and that you agree with him.

But I do not. I do not believe that he is correct, and also assuming that $80,000,000 is beyond the demands of business, it is worth no more than $60,000,000, therefore the greenbacks are proportionately added to it. I submit, therefore, whether this is not equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent in the value of the dollar.

To me a common phrase there is about "an even thing" on which a harridan happens to want some, and goes out to buy, he has to pay 25 cents for $1,000 premium. If he goes home with $1,000, he has paid 25 cents extra, but the market may be quoted a shade easier.

There is not much activity among agents of

Eastern capitalists and note-brokers. Quotations as heretofore, 8@10 per cent, per annum.

Banks are still in a position to loan money, all the money owners are entitled to at 8@2, and in large loans at the lower figure.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Editor of "The Chicago Tribune":
May 10, 1873.—We thank you for your article in The Tribune of this morning on the effects of inflation.

You say that Prof. Fiske, your correspondent, has made a good deal of noise about the effects of inflation, and that you agree with him.

But I do not. I do not believe that he is correct, and also assuming that $80,000,000 is beyond the demands of business, it is worth no more than $60,000,000, therefore the greenbacks are proportionately added to it. I submit, therefore, whether this is not equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent in the value of the dollar.

To me a common phrase there is about "an even thing" on which a harridan happens to want some, and goes out to buy, he has to pay 25 cents for $1,000 premium. If he goes home with $1,000, he has paid 25 cents extra, but the market may be quoted a shade easier.

There is not much activity among agents of

Eastern capitalists and note-brokers. Quotations as heretofore, 8@10 per cent, per annum.

Banks are still in a position to loan money, all the money owners are entitled to at 8@2, and in large loans at the lower figure.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Editor of "The Chicago Tribune":
May 10, 1873.—We thank you for your article in The Tribune of this morning on the effects of inflation.

You say that Prof. Fiske, your correspondent, has made a good deal of noise about the effects of inflation, and that you agree with him.

But I do not. I do not believe that he is correct, and also assuming that $80,000,000 is beyond the demands of business, it is worth no more than $60,000,000, therefore the greenbacks are proportionately added to it. I submit, therefore, whether this is not equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent in the value of the dollar.

To me a common phrase there is about "an even thing" on which a harridan happens to want some, and goes out to buy, he has to pay 25 cents for $1,000 premium. If he goes home with $1,000, he has paid 25 cents extra, but the market may be quoted a shade easier.

There is not much activity among agents of

Eastern capitalists and note-brokers. Quotations as heretofore, 8@10 per cent, per annum.

Banks are still in a position to loan money, all the money owners are entitled to at 8@2, and in large loans at the lower figure.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Editor of "The Chicago Tribune":
May 10, 1873.—We thank you for your article in The Tribune of this morning on the effects of inflation.

You say that Prof. Fiske, your correspondent, has made a good deal of noise about the effects of inflation, and that you agree with him.

But I do not. I do not believe that he is correct, and also assuming that $80,000,000 is beyond the demands of business, it is worth no more than $60,000,000, therefore the greenbacks are proportionately added to it. I submit, therefore, whether this is not equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent in the value of the dollar.

To me a common phrase there is about "an even thing" on which a harridan happens to want some, and goes out to buy, he has to pay 25 cents for $1,000 premium. If he goes home with $1,000, he has paid 25 cents extra, but the market may be quoted a shade easier.

There is not much activity among agents of

Eastern capitalists and note-brokers. Quotations as heretofore, 8@10 per cent, per annum.

Banks are still in a position to loan money, all the money owners are entitled to at 8@2, and in large loans at the lower figure.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Editor of "The Chicago Tribune":
May 10, 1873.—We thank you for your article in The Tribune of this morning on the effects of inflation.

You say that Prof. Fiske, your correspondent, has made a good deal of noise about the effects of inflation, and that you agree with him.

But I do not. I do not believe that he is correct, and also assuming that $80,000,000 is beyond the demands of business, it is worth no more than $60,000,000, therefore the greenbacks are proportionately added to it. I submit, therefore, whether this is not equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent in the value of the dollar.

To me a common phrase there is about "an even thing" on which a harridan happens to want some, and goes out to buy, he has to pay 25 cents for $1,000 premium. If he goes home with $1,000, he has paid 25 cents extra, but the market may be quoted a shade easier.

There is not much activity among agents of

Eastern capitalists and note-brokers. Quotations as heretofore, 8@10 per cent, per annum.

Banks are still in a position to loan money, all the money owners are entitled to at 8@2, and in large loans at the lower figure.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Editor of "The Chicago Tribune":
May 10, 1873.—We thank you for your article in The Tribune of this morning on the effects of inflation.

You say that Prof. Fiske, your correspondent, has made a good deal of noise about the effects of inflation, and that you agree with him.

But I do not. I do not believe that he is correct, and also assuming that $80,000,000 is beyond the demands of business, it is worth no more than $60,000,000, therefore the greenbacks are proportionately added to it. I submit, therefore, whether this is not equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent in the value of the dollar.

To me a common phrase there is about "an even thing" on which a harridan happens to want some, and goes out to buy, he has to pay 25 cents for $1,000 premium. If he goes home with $1,000, he has paid 25 cents extra, but the market may be quoted a shade easier.

There is not much activity among agents of

Eastern capitalists and note-brokers. Quotations as heretofore, 8@10 per cent, per annum.

Banks are still in a position to loan money, all the money owners are entitled to at 8@2, and in large loans at the lower figure.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Editor of "The Chicago Tribune":
May 10, 1873.—We thank you for your article in The Tribune of this morning on the effects of inflation.

You say that Prof. Fiske, your correspondent, has made a good deal of noise about the effects of inflation, and that you agree with him.

But I do not. I do not believe that he is correct, and also assuming that $80,000,000 is beyond the demands of business, it is worth no more than $60,000,000, therefore the greenbacks are proportionately added to it. I submit, therefore, whether this is not equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent in the value of the dollar.

To me a common phrase there is about "an even thing" on which a harridan happens to want some, and goes out to buy, he has to pay 25 cents for $1,000 premium. If he goes home with $1,000, he has paid 25 cents extra, but the market may be quoted a shade easier.

There is not much activity among agents of

Eastern capitalists and note-brokers. Quotations as heretofore, 8@10 per cent, per annum.

Banks are still in a position to loan money, all the money owners are entitled to at 8@2, and in large loans at the lower figure.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Editor of "The Chicago Tribune":
May 10, 1873.—We thank you for your article in The Tribune of this morning on the effects of inflation.

You say that Prof. Fiske, your correspondent, has made a good deal of noise about the effects of inflation, and that you agree with him.

But I do not. I do not believe that he is correct, and also assuming that $80,000,000 is beyond the demands of business, it is worth no more than $60,000,000, therefore the greenbacks are proportionately added to it. I submit, therefore, whether this is not equivalent to a reduction of 20 per cent in the value of the dollar.

To me a common phrase there is about "an even thing" on which a harridan happens to want some, and goes out to buy, he has to pay 25 cents for $1,000 premium. If he goes home with $1,000, he has paid 25 cents extra, but the market may be quoted a

"MISSING LINK."

Mr. Darwin's "missing link" has at length been found, to judge from an account of darwinius heberdeni given by the Siamese Weekly Advertiser:—
"On the Island of Borneo has been found a certain race of wild creatures, of which kind varieties have been described in the Philosophical Transactions, &c., The Elephants and Frogs, and in South Islands. . . . They walk unusually, almost crest, on two legs, and in that attitude measure about four feet in height. They construct no habitation, nor form no families; their sole objects to live are to eat and sleep, and trees, feed on snakes and vermin, on ants' eggs, and on each other. They cannot be tamed or forced to any labor, and are hunted and shot among the trees of the great forests, where they are said to be very numerous. What is surprising, one finds with surprise that their uncouth, jarringly sounds are articulate language. They turn up a human bone to gaze at their captors, and foments of modesty in the females were observed."

"London."

HORSES AND CARRIAGES.

GOOD-AND CARRIAGE DEPOSITORY. 244 Wabash-st., basket phaeton, pony and park do., open square box, $100; carriage, $150; all kinds of buggies, $100 at low prices.

BATTLING TEAM, QUIET DRIVERS. DO their miles in 3 minutes, for half price. Call at 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—TWO OR THREE GOOD DRIVING HORSES. $100 each, $200 for team. Call at 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—A PAIR OF BLACK HORSES. 15 hands, sound and true, one good saddle or bug- gie mare, and one small pony for children, $150. Address C. Parker Cleaning Works, 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—FAIR-SIZED WORK MARES. FOR every part of South Chicago, for sale or exchange. We can furnish horses to suit all requirements of the above property, as we offer it at our cost less than market price.

+ Mackinnon. 9
Langley. Standard. 11
Lindley. A. 10
Cahill. 10
Owen. W. 4.
Lyman. T. 9
Loyd. L. 14
Awan. J. 4.
Tremont. C. 9
Ladd. 8
Swift River. 8
Neponset. 7
Quaker. 7
Grae. 8
Wm. 7
Indian Orchard. W. 8
Dwight Star. 4.
Lambert. 12
Booth. R. 10
Lawrence. S. 6
Massachusetts. B. 9
Nebraska. A. 9
Pemberton. F. 8
Mohawk. 8

112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—A NEW HEAVY EXPRESS WAGON. 1000 lbs. capacity, $150. Weight 1000 lbs. $150.

FOR SALE—FIVE SINGLE-SEAT HORSE-BIGADWON. New make. Little used. Also a very stylish big roadster, $150. Call at 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—HORSE, HARNESS AND OPEN BUGGY. Very clean. $150. Call at 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—THREE LOADS OF HORSE DRIVERS. Three drivers, harness and traps, can be had for $100. Call at 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—A LARGE PAIR OF HANDSOME BAY HORSES. Sound and hard, well-bred, and a good price. Call at 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—A YOUNG HORSE AND WHEAT. 8 hands, sound and quiet. Address C. E. EASTON, 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—A YOUNG HORSE, WEIGHT 2,000 POUNDS. Sound and quiet. Address C. E. EASTON, 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

SOMETHING NEW—CALIFORNIA CARRIAGE RE-

LEASE. Advertised in Advertiser, between Wash- ington and Adams-sts., east of California-st., and new and cheap. Inquire at 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—A GREAT BAROQUE LOT ON WEST-EN-DAW. Lexington, Polk, Taylor, and Campbell-sts. Parties wishing to build, no money required down. Built brick houses, etc., $1000. Call at 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—A LARGE AMOUNT OF CARRIAGE-STOCK, traps, drivers, harness, and traps, can be had for $100. Call at 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—A YOUNG HORSE, ONE SMALL. 8 hands, sound and quiet. Call at 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—FOR CASH, A SECOND-HAND CALIFORNIA BUGGY. Without top. Address stating price, 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FINANCIAL.

PAKURFT FIRE INSURANCE CLAIMS CASHED at highest rates by C. G. GAUTH, 95 and 97 Wash- ington-st., room 5.

LOANS MADE IN RUMS TO SUIT ON INDIVIDUALS. Also short-time advances on real estate, $100 to $1000. Call at 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

W.M. CO. LOANED IN SMALL AMOUNTS BY THE MONEY LOANED IN HAND. Without usury. Address with references O. T. ROBINSON, 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—HAND TO LOAN ON WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS, MEAT, EGGS, &c., &c. Good collateral.

W.M. CO. LOANED IN HAND TO LOAN ON WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS. $100 to $1000. Call at 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

WANTED—$20,000 GOOD INSIDE IMPROVED PROPERTY. In city or county. Inquire at 112 Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—CHEAP STORE AND LOT NO. 112. Located on Wabash-st., room 5.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO HAND TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

FOR SALE—$100 TO LOAN ON CITY REAL ESTATE. To run. Drawers reported to worth $100.

TEMPERANCE.

Reports from Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, and other Western States.

Grand Temperance Demonstration in Pittsburgh.

ILLINOIS.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.
JACKSONVILLE, Ill., April 8.—Some fifteen of the most prominent ladies of Jacksonville continue to visit saloons to pray, sing, and urge liquor-sellers to discontinue business. No saloons have closed, but the amount of drinking has diminished. The druggists have signed a pledge, and it is difficult to obtain liquor, even for medicinal uses. Ladies are obtaining signs to the total-abstinence pledge. Meetings are held almost daily. It is possible that the present license fee of $500 may be raised to $1,000, which will be equivalent to almost total prohibition.

ROCKFORD.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.
ROCKFORD, Ill., April 8.—There is no rest for the saloon-keepers here, for the ladies hold daily prayer-meetings, and already one whisky-dealer has succumbed. His large stock of things drinkable is offered for sale at half price.

The political side of the fight is now pretty well defined. Our Committee, the Merchants, the Aldermen hold over until next year. The other four, and the Mayor, the Hon. Gilbert Woodruff are candidates for the election. It is understood that all are in favor of the temperance cause, and that a consequence the temperance people will run an opposition ticket. No names have yet been made public, but several cold-water men are known to be on the list. They are willing to make themselves available for the cause by running for municipal offices.

Mrs. S. M. J. Henry, the prime agitator of the temperance cause here, has never ill, and has had a violent attack of bleeding at the lungs, brought on by overexertion.

Saturday evening a second grand mass-meeting will probably be held, and on Monday comes the election. A bitter fight on the license-issue is expected.

ELGIN.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.
ELGIN, Ill., April 8.—The temperance movement has been inaugurated in this city by commanding Sunday-prayer-meetings, which are held in the Presbyterian Church. Next Sunday there will be a general temperance-meeting in the M. E. Church, to be addressed by Charles A. Blanchard, of Winona, and others. Work will soon commence.

DANVILLE.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.
DANVILLE, Ill., April 8.—A temperance meeting was held yesterday in the Opera-House, to which the audience was composed of the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The meeting was opened with a short service, followed by a sermon, and then a temperance meeting was held in the Liberty Street M. E. Church. So far, not a saloon-keeper has promised to close in Allegany. The ladies continue to work, but so far, with no results as to any saloon-keepers giving in.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.
BOSTON, April 8.—The temperance movement in the few places in New England is which has shown itself kept up, but does not appear to increase. The Praying Women's Temperance Union, of Worcester, conducted a mass meeting last night at which reports were made showing but little tangible results of saloon-work in that place. The women are however still anxious of ultimate success. Several clergymen, who at first doubted the wisdom of the saloon-work, gave their unqualified approbation. The women keep at work and visit saloons every day, but generally are refused admission.

In East Douglas the crusaders visited a billiard-saloon kept by one L. S. Simpson, and told him to extract from the Bible, and told him he must do it. He did so, and when he had many on my soul," went into a fit, and died in twelve hours.

In Maine there seems to be more activity than in Massachusetts. In Portland, a large mass-meeting was held at which St. Angel, of the European and North American Railroad, took a decided stand with the ladies. H. Ingalls, Esq., who is supposed to be connected with the Custom House, rose to express his views on the subject, and was given a unanimous verdict in favor of the crusade. A meeting was held Saturday evening at the College chapel, and addressed were in English and German by several of the clergy, and a large number of laymen. Yesterday afternoon a ladies' meeting was held in the Methodist Episcopal Church for the purpose of forming definite plans for operation. A large number attended, the Young Men's Christian Association being in the forefront. They also propose to nominate candidates for Mayor. The saloon-keepers have organized in an Anti-Crusade League.

NAPOLEON.

Correspondence to The Chicago Tribune.
NAPOLEON, Ill., April 8.—The temperance crusade has at last reached this place, and considerable excitement has been created in consequence. A Temperance Alliance was formed for the purpose of persuading the saloon-keepers to give up their pledge. A meeting was held Saturday evening at the College chapel, and addressed were in English and German by several of the clergy, and a large number of laymen. Yesterday afternoon a ladies' meeting was held in the Methodist Episcopal Church for the purpose of forming definite plans for operation. A large number attended, the Young Men's Christian Association being in the forefront. They also propose to nominate candidates for Mayor. The saloon-keepers have organized in an Anti-Crusade League.

OFO.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.
COWIN, O., April 8.—A new saloon was opened here to-day by Robert Mount. We can say we were free from the sale of whisky for three weeks until to-day.

KANSAS.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.
FORT SCOTT.

Forts Scott, Kansas, April 8.—There is considerable excitement in our city at present over the temperance-movement, which has just burst upon us so suddenly. Temperance-meetings are held nearly every night, and they have gone more rapidly than any other. The women are greatly interested in these meetings, and one lady came here from Indiana, as I understand, to organize the crusade, and put to flight the legions of the saloon. Some very earnest efforts are to be put forth for the closing of the saloons, of which there are a dozen round about this place. These are all kept by Germans, who are beginning to be considered by the citizens as the chief hindrance to the movement, and it is not believed that prayer will have much effect in closing the saloons.

NEW ENGLAND.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.
NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 8.—The New England Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in its seventy-fifth annual session to-day adopted a protest against the repeal or nullification of the prohibitory law, and also against the enactment of a license law to sustain in any wise the traffic in intoxicating drinks.

MICHIGAN.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.
SCHOLASTIC, Mich., April 8.—The ladies of this place are in session to-day on the temperance question, and intend to exterminate the liquor-trade here.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 8.—For the Upper Lake region, Iowa and Missouri, north and northwest winds, and clear or partly cloudy weather.

and impressive prayers were offered, and the protection of God invoked upon their work. At 10 o'clock the last of twenty-five women, comprising the largest ladies' temperance organization, started. They marched up Sixth street. The column attracted immense attention. The crowd grew to over 1,000. "The crusaders are coming." The crowd following became greater and greater till an immense mob was in their wake. Some rude remarks were made, but the press restrained them, and the ladies were conducted to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

Dr. Wm. Stevenson's wholesale house was revisited, and the ladies received courteous attention. Mr. Dillingham was asked to sign the pledge and quit the business, but he said he could not do so. The ladies then marched back to the Alameda room, where a lunch was prepared, and the members of the press again chatted with the ladies. The ladies again started off. At 12 o'clock the ladies again entered Dr. Wm. Stevenson's, and he was again asked to sign the pledge, but he refused.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies received courteous attention. Mr. Dillingham was asked to sign the pledge and quit the business, but he said he could not do so. The ladies then marched back to the Alameda room, where a lunch was prepared, and the members of the press again chatted with the ladies. The ladies again started off. At 12 o'clock the ladies again entered Dr. Wm. Stevenson's, and he was again asked to sign the pledge, but he refused.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiarly disagreeable, being rainy and dark. The ladies, however, knelt upon the brick walk and commenced their devotions. In the meantime, the Fire Department, the police, and the ladies were calling for drinks and using the vilest language imaginable. They even cursed the women. A Miss Andrews pleaded with the proprietor, but for no purpose. The men who were here were asked to take the ladies to the rescue, and the ladies were conducted safely away. No police, at that time, were near to help protect.

DR. STEVENSON'S. The ladies visited the low resort known as "The Scotch Hill House," kept by John McFadden, corner of Fourth avenue and Harrison street. The ladies again met the ladies at the door. Mrs. Collins, the President, begged to be allowed to pray within the saloon, but were refused. The ladies then left, and the press followed them, holding a meeting on the sidewalk. The day was peculiar